I had been posting through a third-party company on my Facebook business page and noticed that my engagement was way down. At the time I had noticed that Special Strong had a ton of good engagement with their posts and so I reached out to Daniel and he knew exactly what to do. 18 months later, my engagement has gone through the roof! I can honestly say that without Daniel's advice and education I would not be where I am today.

★★★★★

Daniel Stein is an unbelievably inspiring individual who rallies teams, ignites vision, and creates possibilities. Daniel's drive for action and results causes him to think beyond what is right in front of him and creatively work toward the inspiring end goal. In one social media promotion Daniel helped me acquire 5 new clients within 48 hours of the post and a total of 8 new clients in one week. Daniel's network is great and with his help my business is growing!
